

Parks and Community Development Authorization for Wood Cutting Permit

This form is available online at whitehorse.ca/woodburning

For MORE THAN 1 CORD you can obtain a free personal use firewood permit to cut firewood for your home in designated areas from Forestry Management Branch in the YG Energy Mines and Resources Building Mile 918 Alaska Highway or apply online at <https://emr.eservices.gov.yk.ca/pubEMR/PUFWSignin.aspx>

Name: _____

Email Address (Please Print): _____

Day Time Phone Number: _____

Address: _____

Personal Use Permit in Non-Designated Areas Within Municipal Boundary	YES ✓	NO ✓
Have you had a permit in the area before?
If previous permit has been issued, have there been any complaints or compliance issues?
Is area requested on vacant municipal or YG public land?
Have adjacent neighbours to requested area been consulted by client? (If no then client must check with neighbours before proceeding with application of permit).

Estimated number of trees requested for removal: _____

- Limit 1 cord.
- Trees requested for removal must be blow down only.
- Lop and scatter tops and branches less than 5 cm diameter.

REQUIRED!
A map clearly identifying the requested location. WITHOUT a map, permit will be denied.

I acknowledge that the information on this application is correct to the best of my knowledge.

Signed: _____ Date: _____

This completed form and map can be emailed to parks@whitehorse.ca or dropped off for approval

Office Use Only Modification or Note: _____

Approved By: _____ Date: _____

*Please take approved form to Forestry Management Branch in the YG Energy Mines and Resources Building Mile 918 Alaska Highway / 456-3999 / forestry@gov.yk.ca

The City of Whitehorse Encourages the Retention of Trees Wherever Possible.