Vision, Mission, and Goals

Community Economic Development Vision:

The City of Whitehorse endeavors to support a high quality of life for its residents, businesses and visitors through sustainable development which intentionally integrates economic, environmental, social and cultural values. From a community economic development perspective, this includes:

- Positioning the city as a welcoming and attractive location for investment
- Preserving our natural and cultural resources and utilizing them as a source of economic strength
- Enhancing the identity of Whitehorse as a preferred location to live, work and play

Community Economic Development Mission:

To enable the growth and diversification of the region's economy by creating a supportive environment for the entrepreneurs, businesses and residents of Whitehorse to develop and thrive.

Guiding Principles

Community Economic Development Guiding Principles:

Healthy economic communities understand their role and they rely on the following guiding principles:

Process: Community Economic Development is a process that takes time. The mega-corp-moves-1000-jobs-to-Whitehorse-for-the-next-century story rarely exists and when such projects do happen, it is the result of a business decision that is beyond our control. To focus on such activities as a basis for economic development is fruitless.

Vision: Community Economic Development cannot be successful unless there are clear and common goals that are understood by most stakeholders—the strength of this strategy is that it is rooted in the values and aspirations of the residents of the City of Whitehorse and is simply a synthesis of the community’s ideas.

Roles: Economic development agencies and governments do not create jobs; people and businesses do. Although governments can sometimes act as creators these things, a healthy economy calls for a steady flow of entrepreneurs and businesses that have an interest in creating projects and jobs for the generation of wealth. Therefore, a reasonable goal for a community economic development strategy could be to not focus on seeking large investments, but rather on attracting the people that create these opportunities.

Sustainability: The City of Whitehorse is committed to maintaining a healthy environment and good quality of life for everyone over the long term - in other words, to becoming a sustainable community. All citizens have a role to play in moving towards our goals and targets, and the City has a special responsibility in helping us make choices towards sustainability.

The actions described in the balance of this document adhere to these principles. By focusing on creating a healthy, welcoming and vibrant “environment” for business and developing a community that is attractive for people and entrepreneurs to live, we hope to harness the “power of people” to create a healthy, diverse and resilient economy, and most importantly, a sustainable community.

- Director of Development Services

INPUTS/BUDGET
- 100-200 hrs of staff time
- $5,000 professional services

ACTIVITIES

DESIRED OUTCOMES
To have a thriving arts and culture community which is fundamental to a diverse, interesting and vibrant downtown environment

METRIC
- Recommendations for next steps for the City of Whitehorse
- Clarification of City’s role in creating an arts district

DESCRIPTION
The City’s waterfront is significant to First Nations peoples and tells the story of the evolution of the City. Globally, municipalities are re-embracing waterfronts in a post-industrial age as physical locations for community and commercial development. One trend is to focus arts and entertainment in singular location (e.g. Winnipeg ‘The Forks’ and Kelowna ‘Waterfront Park’) to foster a vibrant area. The City will focus on making the waterfront the hallmark of Whitehorse and a place where people can gather and have fun.

Many municipalities concentrate on developing priority areas for improvement through the creation of “business improvement districts”. As one example, businesses may agree to pay an additional tax or levy in order to fund capital projects within their area (sidewalk widening, landscaping, and other visual and mobility improvements, etc.). Though there may not be an appetite for this type of model, it is a means to quickly identify and improve priority areas within the City. The City will endeavor to evaluate the business improvement district model and gauge interest from businesses.

GOAL #6, Activity D: Encourage the development of Front Street festivals and events

PURPOSE
To support the arts and cultural sector and create a hub offering a fun, dynamic vibe for people seeking entertainment.

LEAD/PARTNERS
- Economic Development Coordinator
- Planning
- Recreation and Community Services (City)

INPUTS/BUDGET
80-100 hrs of staff time

ACTIVITIES
- Research best practices, sample policies from different jurisdictions
- Conduct interviews with residents and businesses

OUTPUTS
- Draft policy or directive for events on Front Street
- CASM

DESIGNED OUTCOMES
To create a vibrant downtown that creates a “sense of place” for Whitehorse residents and visitors alike.

METRIC
- Adopted policy
- Increased number of events taking place

DESCRIPTION
Increasingly, municipalities are temporarily closing streets to motor vehicles (generally on Sundays) and opening up streets to non-motorized traffic and temporary businesses. The benefit is more people frequenting an area, spending money on products and services and creating a more vibrant downtown. (Models include: Kitchener, Halifax, Thunder Bay, and Belleville)

An example of an event that could be held on Front Street is “Art on Front”, which might focus on visual and performing arts, allowing artists and other vendors to set up pop-up galleries, exhibits, and displays.

GOAL #6, Activity E: Review the Downtown Parking Plan to promote downtown activity outside of standard office hours

PURPOSE
To facilitate access to shopping, nightlife and events in the downtown core.

LEAD/PARTNERS
• Economic Development Coordinator
• Bylaw Services

INPUTS/BUDGET
40-50 hrs of staff time

ACTIVITIES
Economic Development Coordinator to participate on Parking plan Implementation Committee

OUTPUTS
Admin Report

DESIRE OUTCOMES
To provide businesses and residents flexibility in parking regulations in order to encourage nightlife and business activity.

METRIC
• Adoption of recommendations
• Survey

DESCRIPTION
Residents who wish to partake in nightlife activities in the downtown core and take a taxi home are required to return early the next day to retrieve their vehicles or face parking fines. Ideas such as free downtown parking on Saturday mornings or temporary “car free” streets could be used to reduce the likelihood of drinking and driving, and to encourage residents to enjoy the city’s nightlife, as well as encourage increased retail activity.

Revising the Parking Plan to encourage visitation to the downtown core on weeknights (outside of standard office hours) will help to support local retailers, restaurants, and other entertainment-related businesses.
